THE BEGINNING OF THE END
IT'S TIME TO WATCH FOR THE FINAL EVENTS

EMMANUEL & St. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCHES
Wisconsin Synod
Mecan, WI & Montello, WI
Sunday Worship: 8:00 AM & 10:00AM

We pray that you are blessed by God's Word today. The order of worship is printed here, is projected on the screen, and live streamed at www.stjohnsmontello.org. Restrooms are located in the linkway, out the church entryway, to the left and down the stairs. At Emmanuel, they are located in the Parish Hall. A nursery changing station is located in the lower level of St. John's.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END

The cartoon character holds a sign saying, "The End Is Near." For Christians, this is not a message of fear. Instead, it is a message of watchful hope. Scripture teaches that the End Times began with Christ's first coming, especially his death and resurrection. Christ will come again on judgment day. Now we live in that in-between time, when salvation has been won, but full glory is still to come. It's the beginning of the end. Jesus himself makes clear that no one knows the day or hour of his return. This uncertainty is not meant to trouble us, but to keep us spiritually awake. Each day becomes an opportunity to live in repentance and faith, turning from sin and trusting fully in Christ's finished work for us. Our preparation for the end is not about trying to predict signs or earn God's favor. Instead, it is about remaining rooted in Jesus: hearing the Word, receiving the sacraments, and trusting the promises of forgiveness. These are God's ways of keeping us ready. "The Beginning of the End" reminds us that history is moving toward our own death and toward Christ's return. For believers, that end is truly a beginning.

IT'S TIME TO WATCH FOR THE FINAL EVENTS

Imagine you are planning to take the family out to dinner. You all have to wait for someone to get ready. Minute after minute passes. What can happen in that situation? It's easy to focus on something else and even forget the original goal. Perhaps as you wait, you even fall asleep. As we wait for Christ to return, as day after day passes, it can be easy to get distracted, to lose vigilance, to become spiritually drowsy. It's the beginning of the end. Why does it have to take so long? God forbid that Christ should return and find us spiritually asleep. Today we are reminded that the time between Christ's first and second coming is a time for watchfulness.

Preparing for Worship with Prayer

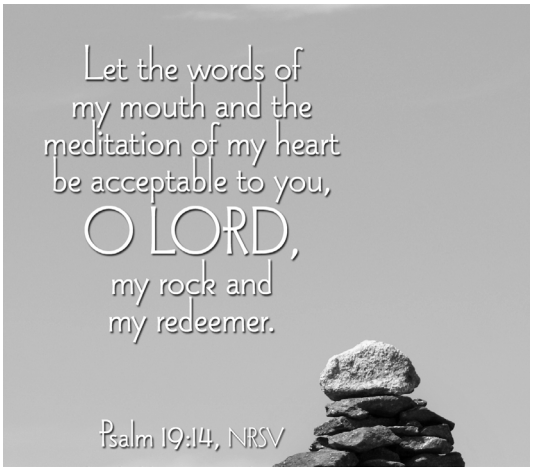

Prepare my heart for worship, Lord. May it never be merely going through the motions but a time of heartfelt communion with you. Move me to come with a repentant heart, ready to confess my sins in honesty and deep humility. Focus my eyes on the cross and lift me up with the forgiveness you won for me there. Make me grateful for the fellowship I share with other Christians as we gather around your Word, which is a blessing I never want to take for granted. Amen.

Our Biblical Communion Practice

The Lord's Supper is God's gift in which we receive Christ's body and blood for the forgiveness of sins and strengthening of faith. This gift brings certain responsibilities. The sacrament is for those who have been instructed and who understand what the sacrament is all about. Communing together is also a way we express oneness of faith. Therefore, we ask that only confirmed members of our congregations or other churches in fellowship with the Wisconsin Synod come forward to receive the sacrament today. Thank you for respecting this biblical practice. To learn more, you may speak with the pastor.

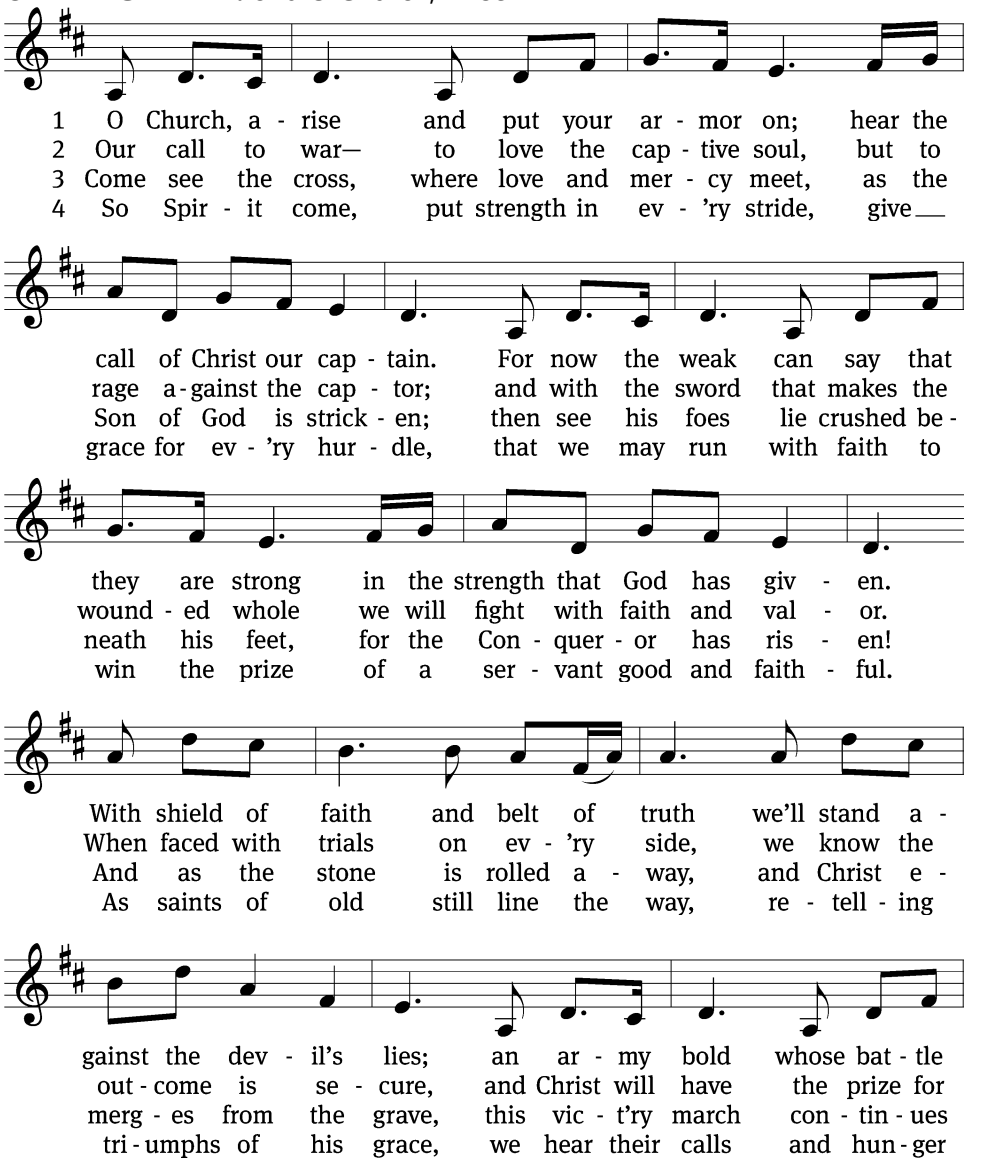

Preparing for Communion with Prayer

I need your forgiveness, Lord. As I come to receive your body and blood in the sacrament, give me the peace of knowing that you are my Savior, that my sins are removed, and that I have a place in heaven with you. Keep me from false teaching and unbelief, help me fight against my flesh and its sinful desires, and guide my steps by your Word. Amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.
If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

Let us confess our sins to the Lord.
Holy God, gracious Father, I am sinful by nature and have sinned against you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have not loved you with my whole heart; I have not loved others as I should. I deserve your punishment both now and forever. But Jesus, my Savior, paid for my sins with his innocent suffering and death. Trusting in him, I pray: God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Silence for meditation and reflection

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Our gracious Father in heaven has been merciful to us. He sent his only Son, Jesus Christ, who gave his life as the atoning sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

KYRIE

In peace let us pray to the Lord.

For the peace from above and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the Church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord.

For this holy house and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord.

Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gracious Lord.

HYMN OF PRAISE: 609 We Praise You O God Our Redeemer v. 1-2

Text: Julia B. Cory, 1882–1963, alt.
Tune: Nederlandtsch Gedenckclanck, Haarlem, 1626
Text and tune: Public domain

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY:

Let us pray. Almighty God and Savior, you have set the final day and hour when we shall be delivered from this world of sin and death. Keep us ever watchful for the coming of your Son that we may sit with him and all your holy ones at the marriage feast in heaven; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

FIRST READING: Isaiah 52:1-6

The prophet cries "Awake!" to people sleepwalking through life.

[1]Awake, awake, Zion, clothe yourself with strength! Put on your garments of splendor, Jerusalem, the holy city. The uncircumcised and defiled will not enter you again. [2]Shake off your dust; rise up, sit enthroned, Jerusalem. Free yourself from the chains on your neck, Daughter Zion, now a captive. [3]For this is what the Lord says: "You were sold for nothing, and without money you will be redeemed." [4]For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: "At first my people went down to Egypt to live; lately, Assyria has oppressed them.
[5]"And now what do I have here?" declares the Lord. "For my people have been taken away for nothing, and those who rule them mock," declares the Lord. "And all day long my name is constantly blasphemed. [6]Therefore my people will know my name; therefore in that day they will know that it is I who foretold it. Yes, it is I."

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

At St. John's, CALA Little Lambs through 2 sings.

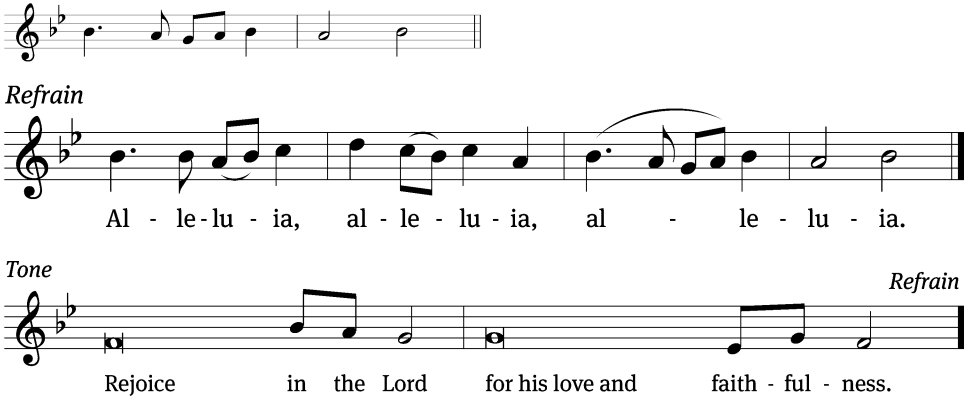

SECOND READING: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

Be watchful for Jesus to return. Live as children of light.

[1]Now, brothers and sisters, about times and dates we do not need to write to you, [2]for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. [3]While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. [4]But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness so that this day should surprise you like a thief. [5]You are all children of the light and children of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness. [6]So then, let us not be like others, who are asleep, but let us be awake and sober. [7]For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, get drunk at night. [8]But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, putting on faith and love as a breastplate, and the hope of salvation as a helmet. [9]For God did not appoint us to suffer wrath but to receive salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. [10]He died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with him. [11]Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Tune: © 2021 Northwestern Publishing House. Used by permission: OneLicense no. 722228

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 25:1-13 (Sermon Text)

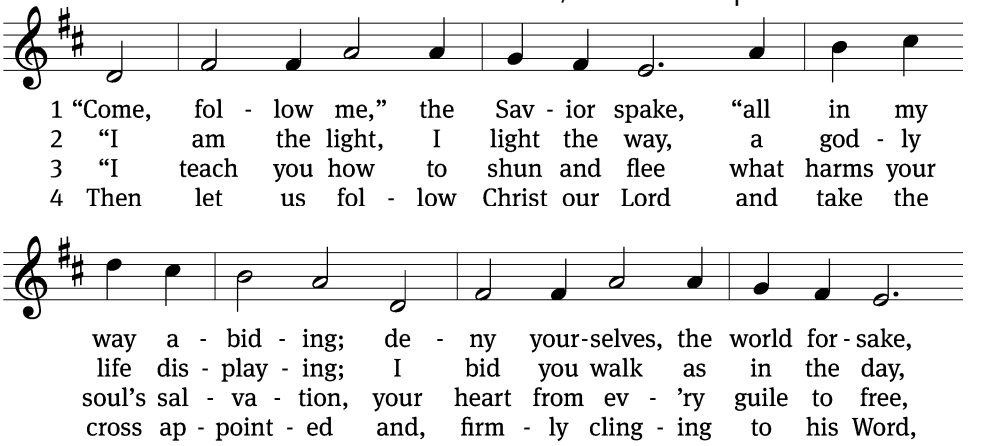

Those who are watching and ready for the Bridegroom will enter into the great wedding banquet.

[1]"At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. [2]Five of them were foolish and five were wise. [3]The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. [4]The wise ones, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. [5]The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep. [6]"At midnight the cry rang out:
'Here's the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' [7]"Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. [8]The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.' [9]" 'No,' they replied, 'there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.' [10]"But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut. [11]"Later the others also came. 'Lord, Lord,' they said, 'open the door for us!' [12]"But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I don't know you.'n[13]"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you, O Christ!

HYMN OF THE DAY: 702 Come Follow Me, The Savior Spake

Text: tr. Charles W. Schaeffer, 1813–1896, alt.; (sts. 1–2, 4): Johann Scheffler, 1624–1677, abr.; (st. 3): Geistliche Lieder und Lobgesänge, 1695

SERMON: Matthew 25:1-13 "Keep Watch"

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERING

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

THE SACRAMENT

The Lord be with you.

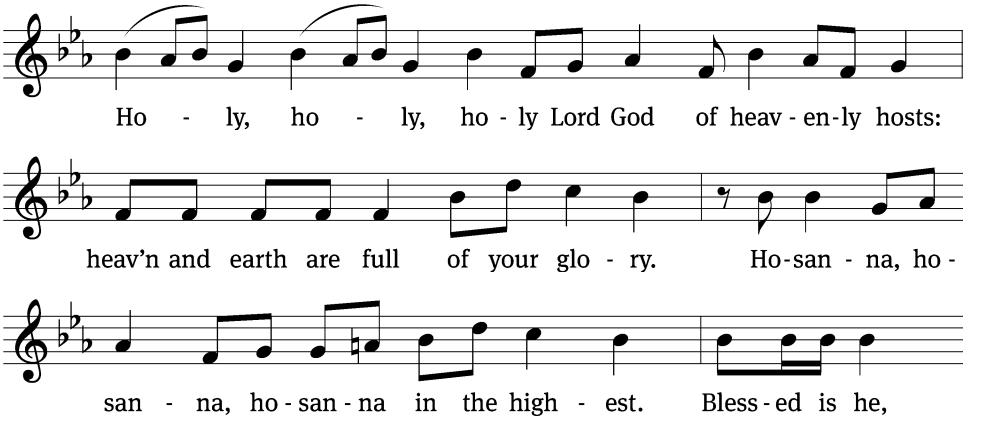

Lift up your hearts.

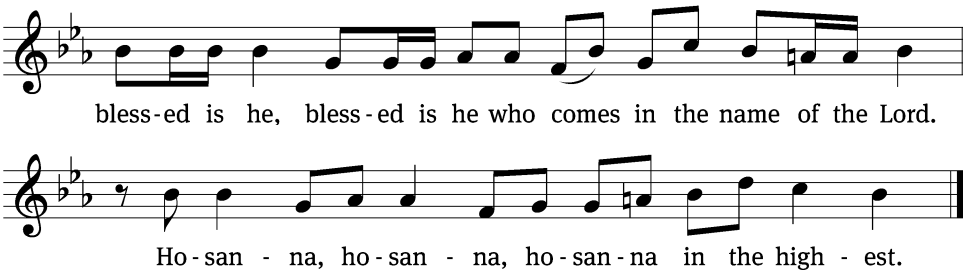

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who promised that wherever two or three come together in his name, there he is with them to shepherd his flock until he comes again in glory. Therefore, with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name and join their glorious song:

Lord God, you are worthy to receive thanks and praise from all people. You created the world and all who live in it, and in your mercy you saved us. We give thanks to you for the grace of your Son, Jesus Christ. Though in very nature God, he took the nature of a servant and became obedient to death, even death on a cross. He offered himself as a sacrifice for sin and redeemed us from its curse and penalty. He rescued us from the terrors of death and restored eternal life with you. He conquered our enemies and gained for us the kingdom of grace and glory. Bless us as we receive your Son's body and blood, and lead us to remember his suffering, death, and resurrection. Forgive our sins and fill us with the hope of new life in heaven. Hear our praise and receive our thanks as we worship you—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

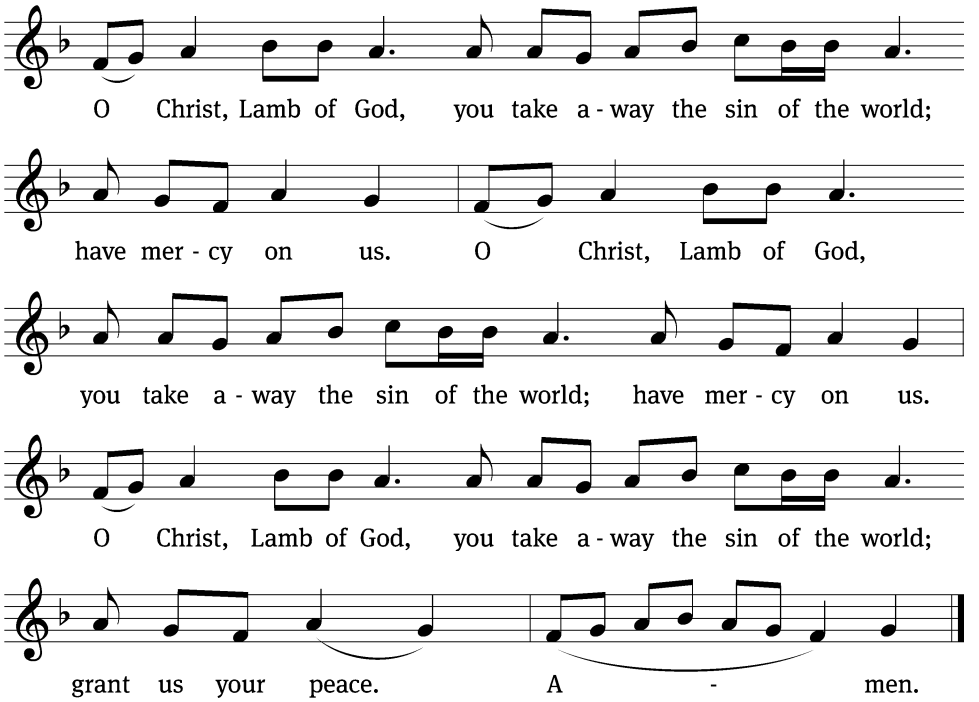

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The peace of the Lord be with you always.
Amen.

DISTRIBUTION

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures forever.

Whenever we eat this bread and drink this cup,
we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

We give you thanks, O Lord, for the foretaste of the heavenly banquet you have given us in this Sacrament. Through this gift you have fed our faith, nourished our hope, and strengthened our love. By your Spirit, help us to live as your holy people until that day when you will receive us as your guests at the wedding supper of the Lamb, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

BLESSING

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The Lord look on you with favor and give you peace.
Amen.

LWMS PIE SALE TODAY, NOVEMBER 8 Lots of yummy flavors. $12.00 per pie. Sales begin at 9:15 a.m. in the St. John's gym and continue until the 10 a.m. service. Sales re-open after the service until all pies are sold. Proceeds go to our local LWMS Working Fund which pays for LWMS dues, assists with mission festival speakers, and other mission-related projects.

Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay aside in store as God hath prospered him, "

Stewardship of the Word Last Week:

- Sunday Worship at Emmanuel 85 and at St. John's 84

Hebrews 10:25 Let us not neglect meeting together, as some have the habit of doing. Rather, let us encourage each other, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Our Stewardship of Time:

This week the ushers at St. John's are: Matthew Kath, Glen Bubolz, Martin Schmanke, Dan Finger. The St. John's ushers for November 15 are: James Wachholz, Zeb Zuehls, Chuck Boetcher, Jesse Schable, Aaron Wachholz, Wally Wolsdorf.

The 6th-8th grade CALA students will be making wreaths for the Holiday Trail and are looking for donations of Christmas-themed or Christmas-colored fabric, as well as straw or CraftFoM wreath forms. Each wreath uses approximately 1½ yards of fabric. Our goal is to make 10-20 wreaths to sell at the Holiday Trail, with any unsold wreaths also being available at the Princeton craft fair the following weekend. Any donations would be greatly appreciated. Thank you for supporting our students and this project!

Holliday GriefShare. For people grieving the loss of a loved one, the holiday season (especially Thanksgiving and Christmas) can feel hurtful and sad. They are faced with social gatherings, holiday cheer, and special traditions that had always involved their loved one. Whether the loss was recent or years ago, this season is a painful reminder that their loved one is no longer here to celebrate. While the holidays can intensify grief, GriefShare's Surviving the Holidays will bring reassurance, practical advice, and a way forward through the season. My prayer is that God will use this event to bring His comfort, hope, and direction to grieving people this holiday season. On Saturday, November 14, 2026 at 9:00am I will be having a "Surviving The Holiday's GriefShare" at St. John's Lutheran Church in Princeton, WI, at 226 South Clinton Street. Enter through the doors under the arch. I will be providing French Toast Bake for this event so if you would like to bring a breakfast dish, fresh fruit, doughnuts, fruit juice, etc.....that would be appreciated but not necessary. There is no cost for this event but I would appreciate a response if you plan to attend by Thursday, November 5, so that I have enough time to order the books and receive them in time. To sign up or if you have any questions concerning this event please call or text me; Mark Emond Sr. at (608) 697-1600 or email me at mpmbte@frontier.com. With the amount of telemarketers, I don't pick up numbers I don't recognize so please leave me a voicemail and I will return your call. Since I check my phone more that email; phone would be preferred.

Give the gift of a Christ-centered education! ❤️
Your generosity can make a lasting difference in the life of a child and their family. By donating to Christ Alone Lutheran Academy, you can help provide the gift of a Christian education or help offset the cost of tuition for those who need a little extra support. Every gift, big or small, helps make a difference. Together, we can ensure more children have the opportunity to grow in faith, knowledge, and love for Christ.

MISSIONS ARE THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH!

A Prayer for OPEN DOORS

(Here's a prayer to use during your private devotions!)

Heavenly Father, your great missionary Paul implored the Colossians to pray that God might open a door for the message so that the mystery of Christ might be proclaimed. We, too, pray for open doors for your message!

The spread of the gospel continues through missionaries whom you have equipped with gifts given by the Spirit. We pray for all missionaries, especially imploring you on behalf of Befriended Missionaries Luke Wolfgramm in Russia, Jonathan Bauer in Mt. Horeb-WI, and Nate Bourman in Milwaukee-WI. Give them courage to speak, wisdom to make difficult decisions, doors of opportunity and the means to go through them, perseverance to continue the long years of work. Give a special measure of blessing to their families. Be with them and bless them wherever you have called them to minister, richly making up for any blessings they may have given up to serve alongside their husbands and fathers.

Use each of us to support those who proclaim your name where we cannot. Use us to proclaim your mighty and wonderful deeds to those around us. Open our eyes to see the doors of mission opportunity that you have prepared in advance for each of us to do. In Jesus' name, we ask.

A Special Family

The Nolte family*, from a small town in southern Minnesota, had 36 cousins serving at one time during World War II. They served in different capacities as pilots, medics, cavalry, and across services in theaters throughout the world. Each one with stories that come from serving on the frontlines, either on the ground, in the air, or at sea. By God's grace, they all came home. At family reunions, they shared their common Lutheran faith and their military service. A place where they could share their experiences with others who could relate. You could say they are a special family.

With so many serving at one time, the Nolte family was significantly affected. The same is true today. Spouses, children, and parents, are touched by their Veteran's experience. Each one with their own personal perspective, challenges, and joys. There are times when they can feel like few, if any, will understand what they have or are going through. Each member of a military family sacrifices in a unique way, including the Veteran.

What a blessing it is then that we belong to a special family, adopted by our Heavenly Father. In Jesus, we have a Brother who has faced and conquered all that life has to throw at us. Whether in times of trial or in joy, he invites us to come to him in every situation with every thought. He is gentle with us in times of hurt; he rejoices with us in times of joy. He reminds us that no matter where we are, we are not alone. Jesus goes before us, beside us, and with us. In his unfailing love for us, he hears our prayers.

This Veteran's Day, there are ways to honor those who have served in your community. Thank them for their service and if their spouse is present, thank them as well. Welcome a Vietnam Veteran home. Provide meaningful support to the spouses of those Service Members currently deployed by providing childcare, meals, or help with fixes around the home. Lend a caring ear to those who will share a story with you. Point them to their Brother, Jesus.

He Reigns,

November 1st and 8th are designated International Days of Prayer for the Persecuted Church. John 1:1-5 In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

In countries such as Nigeria, India, Ethiopia, Iran, Pakistan, and many others, countless numbers of Christians of many ethnicities live out their faith in places of danger and hostility. Some are forced to worship in secret, while many others face suffering, hardship, loss, and even death. There are been many martyred for their faith since the time of Stephen. However, even in that darkness, our brothers and sisters continue to live for Jesus. They show his compassion, they forgive, they share the good news. They are Christ's light in the darkest places. And they need our support in prayer! We can pray that God will protect them and sustain their faith. Pray for those who are currently in prison or awaiting trial. Pray that Christian literature and Bibles translated into the local languages can be freely distributed and read. Pray for the growth and protection of churches being planted in towns and villages. Pray that individuals will find fellowship and encouragement in their faith.

Advent by Candlelight will be hosted by the ladies of Emmanuel on Sunday, Nov. 29th at 4:00pm. Sign up sheets will be out at each church next Sunday, Nov. 15th. Please join us for this wonderful afternoon/evening of the Word, music, and fellowship to help prepare your hearts for the Advent Season.
